Welcome! We're glad you are with us this morning as we talk about Jesus' transfiguration and sacred spaces. We will be looking at how we, as modern-day disciples, live into and experience the sacred spaces in our lives, just as the disciples experienced a sacred space with Jesus on the mountain top.

We are also welcoming new members today and celebrating our Troop 4 Boy Scouts, their hard work and achievements.

The Texas Presbytery Foundation will be here during the Pastor's Class time at 9 AM to talk about the Foundation itself and answer questions.

Lastly, we invite you to join us tonight at North Campus for a camp-style family night and worship experience with our friends from Dwight Mission. We have people from all over the state coming in to worship, see friends, and love God together through live music and some silly fun. Come on out and join us!

A lot is going on at Westminster today, and we're glad you've joined us!

Grace and peace,

Rev. Abbey Walker
Associate Pastor

FOCUS ON FOUNDATION

Please join the Westminster Presbyterian Church Foundation and Stefanie Marsden of the Texas Presbyterian Foundation at 9 AM in the Pastor's Class to learn more about how a legacy you leave today can live on for generations to come. Marsden, Relationship Manager at TPF, will discuss legacy and planned giving and the partnership between the WPC Foundation and TPF. After her presentation, the WPC Foundation will give a report of the balances of the funds and the ways the distributions from the Foundation has helped our church through the years. Marsden also will lead the Moment for Mission in both services.

As TPF's Relationship Manager, Marsden is responsible for working closely with partners to grow relationships as well as their TPF assets. With more than 20 years of business and development experience, Marsden serves as a leader for TPF by leveraging both her business acumen and passion for the Church. She serves as an elder at Canyon Creek Presbyterian Church in Richardson, where she sits on the nominating committee and participates in music and women's ministries. She lives in Richardson, Texas, with her husband, Troy, and their two children.

The WPC Foundation manages designated funds that exist solely for the benefit of the church and its facilities and ministries. The Foundation seeks to honor the past, sustain the present, and nurture the future with six funds, each with a different focus. We hope that you will review the funds, find one that matches your passions, and consider designating "Westminster Presbyterian Church Foundation" for memorials, in your estate planning, and for other charitable gifts.
