A NOTE FROM REV. DR. PAUL J. KIRBAS

Dear Congregation,

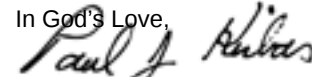

As we enter the month of August, we are deep into the summer season. Many of our church families use this time of the year for travel, and if that includes you, I hope your travels are full of blessings. But I hope we all realize that even when we are away, the costs of running our church are always present. It is quite normal for our budget to run behind in the summer months, but you can help by keeping your giving to the church consistent through these summer weeks.

Also as we enter this month, I want to highlight a special church-wide event that is coming up. It is our All Church Barn Dance. And since our "All Church" now includes two campuses, I hope that everyone across these campuses will consider attending this special church event. It is our hope to use these all-church activities to help the people of the Central Campus and the people of the North Campus to get to know each other better. Although "dance" is in the title, this event is not only for those with good mobility. It is a fun event meant for everyone to enjoy. So I hope you and your family will attend our Barn Dance on Friday, August 17, beginning with dinner at 5:45 PM, at our Central Campus.

And now, let's turn our attention to an old saying: The Apple of My Eye. What does this saying really mean, and where does it come from? We will find the answer in our scriptures today!

In God's Love,

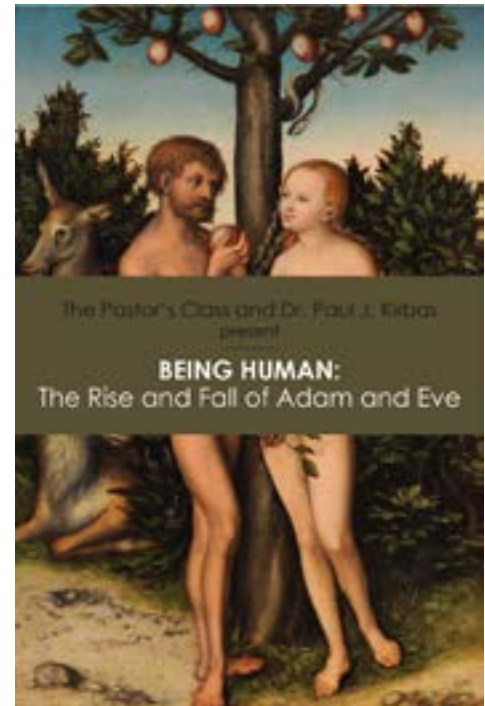

Dr. Paul J. Kirbas
Pastor / Head of Staff

BEING HUMAN: The Rise and Fall of Adam and Eve

Ever since the dawn of civilization, the Biblical story of Adam and Eve has been seen as the origin of what it means to be human. We may call this by the term "religious anthropology", and for centuries, this story has defined the triumph and the tragedy of humanity. On one hand, it allows us to consider ourselves unique and special in the universe, seeing ourselves as the only creatures created "in God's Image". On the other hand, Adam and Eve have been seen as the cause of original sin, and the fall of humanity. But given our scientific understandings today, what becomes of Adam and Eve? And if they are seen as simply myths, then what does make us human, and if anything, what does make us special and unique? Join Dr. Paul Kirbas for this Summer Pastor's Class as we consider what it means to Be Human in our modern world. This class is based on the new book by Pulitzer Prize winner Stephen Greenblatt entitled The Rise and Fall of Adam and Eve. This new Pastor's class is at 9:30AM, in classroom 103. Full Circle Bookstore will have the The Rise and Fall of Adam and Eve available for purchase.

God's word is alive. God will always have something new to say to us. That's why the purpose of the LISTEN UP! Bible Study series is not simply learning information about the Bible. It is hearing God speak. There is a difference. In these Bible studies, you will be encouraged to listen: listen to the Bible, listen to your own questions and responses, and listen to the honest sharing among participants in your study group. Trusting in the power of the Holy Spirit, we believe that in that mix of biblical text, personal engagement, and honest speaking and listening, God's word may be heard, speaking words of challenge and words of comfort.

ALL CHURCH BARN DANCE

Why you don't want to miss our next family night event - The Barn Dance...

I was recently asked, "...so what exactly is the Friday Night Barn Dance? Is it square dancing?" The question helped me realize that many in our congregation might not know that this is a unique inter-generational family event open to all ages and abilities. It is not an evening built around traditional square dancing, but rather it is a night built around fellowship, big circle dances while integrating recreation and the Theology of Play. In fact, we could boast that we are bringing in one of the top recreational leadership specialists and theology of play experts in the country. Beth Bannerman Gunn is nationally known for her family based recreation services that are inter-generational. She grew up in the Presbyterian tradition, and her family has been teaching circle dance for generations. In a nutshell, Beth is a specialist in Recreation Leadership, Dance Calling, and incorporating recreation with dance, movement, music that is masterfully woven together in a night of sharing the legacy of big circle barn dance with our congregation.

When Darci first brought the idea to the table about bringing Beth in, I was delighted, but I realize that Oklahoma is far from Black Mountain, North Carolina and the East Coast areas, where everyone is familiar with this concept, and her familie's specialized leadership events for congregations. I was fortunate to have known her parents when I served at Ginter Park Presbyterian Church in Richmond, Virginia. I remember standing in the social hall at Ginter Park and thinking that I would rather not "square dance," but Glenn asked that we all stand and hold hands. I thought we were going to pray so of course, I grabbed the hands of those standing next to me and bowed my head. The next thing I knew, he asked that we circle to the left and then circle to the right and I looked up, and he had the whole congregation dancing. Glenn explained that day that he learned dance calling from his Dad who was raised in North Carolina, just northwest of Wilmington and during the tobacco season, the community would gather for a big circle dance. These were held in a barn and often held when a community had gathered around a barn raising or the building barn. It was a social event, but also they all danced to settle the foundation.

This long legacy of big circle dance and fellowship will be shared by Glenn's daughter with us on August 17 from 5:45 PM - 8 PM at our Central Campus. Beth Gunn will be hosting the evening and is Glenn and Evelyn's daughter. She is an expert in the field of recreation leadership and travels across the country to lead church retreats, youth events, speak at conferences and facilitate recreation at family gatherings. The circle dances are simple and suitable for young and old alike. Beth is also a national leader in youth ministry within our denomination and is highly sought after for her workshops.

I hope you don't miss this All-Church Barn Dance on August 17, 2018, at our Central Campus at 5:45 pm – 8 PM. Remember no dance experience is necessary. Dinner is included with the event. $7.00 per adult, $5.00 per child, with a $25.00 family max. RSVP is both helpful and appreciated in planning for our meal at this event. Sign-up in the Garden Court or online at www.wpcokc.org/barndance.

A Note From Laurel Hall

August is an exciting time in the life of Connecting Point: the North Campus of Westminster Presbyterian Church! Your Campus Coordinating Committee is hard at work discussing Fall programming and worship plans that complement all of the things going on at Westminster Central. We want to hear from you! Do you like worship at 5 PM? As it gets darker, do you think we should move it to 3 PM? Are you ready to shift back to an 11 AM service? Does it make sense for one congregation to schedule conflicting worship services? Please participate in our survey this week, either on paper or online, so that we can move forward with your input.

Looking ahead, Labor Day weekend there is only one service planned for all of Westminster. It will be held at Westminster Central at 10:30. There will not be worship here at Connecting Point September 2.

September 9th is the Grand Re-Opening of our two campus church. We will worship as one congregation at Westminster Central at 10:30 on the 9th. All of the Connecting Point members will be introduced and formally welcomed during worship that morning; then everyone will come out to Connecting Point for a whole-church picnic. Plans are in the works for a brand new sign to be unveiled! Also, there is an exciting mission component to the picnic - stay tuned for details!

Re-birth is the core belief of our faith, and is something we Christians don't just believe - it's something we do. And in this day and age a new birth warrants a new hashtag! When you're posting about one of our campus events on social media, use #ourCP. Welcome to this season of re-birth in our community, "for if we have died with Christ, we will also live with Him" - 2 Timothy 2:11b
